DRYING APRICOTS THIS YEAR IS CONSIDERED BY GROWERS AT GATHERING

Holding of Fruit Dependent Upon Cannery Prices

Possibility that apricot growers in this section may not sell their fruit this year if the canneries do not pay above a certain price was seen as a result of an Alameda county apricot growers' meeting in Centerville last week.

The growers decided at the gathering to prepare their drying yards and trays in case buyers' prices do not prove satisfactory. A higher price for dried fruit than for canning fruit was received last year because of the grade reductions at the canneries it was declared at the meeting.

Decision was made by the growers to sell their apricot crop if the canneries offered $40 a ton. According to statements made at the meeting, the average price last year was $20 a ton, all grades considered, with a top price of $35.

The growers also agreed that the picking prices will be twenty cents an hour and cutting prices seven cents for each forty-pound box this year. It is expected the picking season will begin two weeks later this year than usual because of the cold and damp weather. Picking will begin about July 1, with the peak expected about July 5.

A considerable market for picking boxes and drying trays this year is expected to exist in southern Alameda county, especially if the canneries' prices do not meet expectations.

This year's apricot crop is expected to be about seventy-five per cent of last year, running to as low as fifty per cent in southern Alameda county and in Stanislaus county. It is reported that the canneries' carryover of apricots from last year consists chiefly of the smaller grades of fruit, while larger grades are nearly all disposed of. This is expected to provide an unusual elements in the market situation

Indications are that due to depression economy trends market demand will be quite largely for the smaller grades of fruit.

LEGION TOSSERS TO CLASH AT NILES

A torrid baseball contest is tentatively scheduled for the Niles grammar school grounds when the "army" diamond artists of the Washington township American Legion post will meet the "navy" tossers of the same post Sunday.

The "army" nine will be composed of legionairees who were army men during the World War while the "navy" team will consist of those who served in the navy Both nines boast of no mean baseball talent, and a hotly contested struggle is assured as the losing team will have to cook and serve a feed to the winners.

DEFEND BUDGETS PUBLICATION ON ECONOMY GROUNDS

Leads to Less Expenditure By School Board Officials

(Special to the Register)

Sacramento, June 8—Some county superintendents complain that the new law making it mandatory for districts to publish annual budgets is an unnecessary expense and of no value to the taxpayers.

This attitude can natcrally be expected by persons who have had a place at the public banquet table for many years, with little odds asked from the taxpayers who paid for the means. As soon as school officials were compelled to give an accounting of their expenditures and give the public an opportunty to scrutinize the budgets, some of the officals and employes began to complain.

During a time when most of the people had jobs and money was plentiful with the great mapority, school officials could go along without much thought on the part of the taxpayers who footed the bills.

The first publications of budgets were required last year and it is believed by persons who have been in touch wth the school systems of the state that several million dollars have been saved because school officials have felt the necessity to guard against public criticisms, after their budgets became public knowledge, and have therefore used greater care in permitting unnecessary expenditures in their budgets.

It is observed that practically all citizens favor good schools and each community is proud of having as good schools as are found anywhere. As soon as the necessity of expenditures are understood and that the burdens of taxation will not be intolerable, there is seldom any serious objections to reasonable school costs.

Large Turnout Greets Niles Mobilization

As part of a state-wide movement, a mobilization call was held throughout Washington township Sunday morning for all members of the American Legion.

A large turnout greeted the blast of the fire department siren at Niles bringing out the Niles Legion members. The purpose of the mobilization was to determine how quickly the legionnaires could turn out in case of emergency.

Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Siebert, of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ellsworth, of Berkeley, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth Sunday.

FIRE BUILDERS NEED PERMITS SAY OFFICIALS

FIRE OFFICIALS have called attention to all Niles and other community people that it is absolutely necessary by state law to obtain a permit before setting a bonfire or fires of any sort. Because of the fire danger due to the present dry season, it is regarded especially imperative those wishing to set fires obtain this permit.

Those setting fires without permits are subject to severe penalties under the law. In Niles such permits can be obtained from Tony Alves, chief of the Niles fire department, while in the sections where there are no fire chiefs they may be obtained from the district fire warden. Fire officials are making every effort to see that this law is observed.

CANNERY AT NILES OPENS FOR SHORT SALAD RUN

According to cannery officials, the regular summer canning season will begin about July 1 and continue until sometime in the fall of the year.

Niles Jury Trial Is Postponed For Week

The jury trial of Fred Duarte, of Centerville, charged with petty larceny, was postponed until next Tuesday in the Niles justice court, when the defendant asked for additional time in which to secure an attorney.

Duarte put up $100 bail to be at liberty, and thus lost the services of the public defender. Thomas Power will represent him at the jury trial next week before Judge J. A. Silva.

BELOVED TOWNSHIP PHYSICIAN ANSWERS SUMMONS OF DEATH

Operation Is Fatal To Dr. John M. Adams, of Niles

Niles and Washington township were saddened this week when news was received that Dr. John M. Adams, one of the best-known and beloved physician in this section of the county, died early Sunday morning in the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco.

Dr. Adams underwent an operation Thursday morning and seemed to be recovering satisfactorily until Saturday afternoon when he suffered a relapse and passed away Sunday morning. He had been ailing for several years and had been under considerable suffering although he continued to faithfully pursue his medical practice.

John Miilton Adams was born seventy-two years ago in Vinton, Iowa, and spent the early part of his life in the Middle West. He received his medical degree from Rush Medical College in Chicago, and also was a student at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. He also studied for a time at Cooper Institute.

During the closing years of the last century, Dr. Adams came to the state of Washington where he settled at Ritzville. He had a wide medical practice in that section of the country and many friends who respected and admired him.

It was in Washington that Dr. Adams met Miss Myrtle Graham, to whom he was united in marriage in Spokane in 1902. Dr. and Mrs. Adams celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary. during April of this year. To this union was born one son, Graham Gilcrist Adams, of San Francisco.

Dr. Adams with his family came to California in 1911, settling in Oakland, where the doctor practiced for a year. In 1912 they moved to Centerville where they resided until 1921 when they moved to Niles where they have made their home ever since.

Although Dr. Adams was not especially well known outside of his circle of kin and friends, and the homes of his patients, everyone in the community will remember him as a man of attractive personality, pleasant and friendly to meet, quiet, yet not reserved in the sense of avoiding or repelling anyone. He appreciated friendliness, perhaps in an unusual degree; where the gratitude he had earned in his unsparing exertions was expressed, he was himself touched and grateful. There is no one in the community who will not remember him with kindly feeling, no one who will ever recall the slightest unkindness of word or deed from him; and to those who had for years turned to him for help and wisdom, his loss is like the loss of one of their own family.

Immediate relatives who survive are Mrs. John M. Adams, his wife, of Niles; his son, Graham G. Adams and wife and baby daughter, of San Francisco; two sisters, Miss Lou Adams, and Mrs. Mary Houts, both of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Simplicity, beauty and truth characterized the services held for the deceased.

F. V. Jones, a friend of Dr. Adams for thirty years, paid touching tribute to him as a man, as a friend, as a physician. "He was God's good man. He was a friend—a good old fashioned friend who never failed," he said. Dr. Milicent Shinn spoke of the Dr. Adams whom we all knew; the family phy-

FORMER FIRE CHIEF IS FETED AT MEETING

Honoring H. B. Rathbun, former fire chief, members of the Niles fire department held a wienie feed at their regular meeting in the fire hall Friday night.

Rathbun returned from his mining claim in the mountains to pay a short visit to Niles. He went back yesterday. Rathbun for whom the urge for digging gold proved stronger than chasing fires, reported that returns from the mining were good. He had several nuggets to exhibit to those who might have been skeptical.

AMERICAN GARAGE OPENS SERVICE SHOP

No longer will it be necessary for Niles and Washington township automobile owners to go to Oakland or San Jose for a complete and efficient washing job on their cars as the result of the American Garage at Niles opening their new modern service shop this week.

Installed with the most modern equipment found in any station south of Oakland or north of San Jose, the new addittion to the garage is completely furnished to perform the best possible work in motor cleaning, chassis washing, car washing and polishing, and greasing, and is a distinct asset to garage service in Niles. Extensive preparations have been made to provide quick service to all customers, a man to be employed at all times to handle this new feature.

The new shop was constructed at a cost approximating $4500, and will prove a revelation to all who avail themselves of its use.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Broyles and family spent Sunday visiting friends in Oakland.

'CASEY'S TRIAL' LOOMS AS BIGGEST TOWNSHIP COMEDY HIT IN YEARS

Over 100 People to Perform at Niles Next Tues. and Wed.

One of the most amusing and hilarious shows ever staged in Washington township is in store for the public next Tuesday and Wednesday nights, June 14 and 15, when the two act comedy, "Casey's Trial," is presented at the Veteran's Memorial building in Niles. The show is being sponsored by the Washington Township American Legion-Auxiliary and proceeds will go toward their welfare work fund.

Over one hundred people from all over the township have been practicing every night under the direction of Gladys Lindley and K. E. Canfield, experienced amateur show directors, and judging from their performances the audience is assured of being treated to a presentation which would bring bursts of hearty laughter from the most gloomy pessimist.

All members of the cast have displayed a natural talent in the portrayal of laughable situations that is certain to bring spasms of continuous mirth from the crowd throughout the entire performance.

The howls of laughter will begin with the first act when a mock trial takes place in which Dotty Perkins, portrayed with ability by Miss Eva Steinhoff, of Newark, is sueing Dennis Casey, convincingly done by George Kommas, of Centerville, for $50,000. The actions and words of the honorable judge, appropriately personified by Elmer Norby, of Irvington, attorneys Atty Skin and Take-A-Coin, played with talent by Louis Mayer and Tom J. Power respectively, and the clerk of the court, portrayed by A. J. Petsche, add to the merriment. Kittie Bernal and A. P. Peacock as Mary and Henry Perkins, par-

Niles Nursery Road Suit Looms For This Month

Possibility that the condemnation suit to obtain right-of-way for the nursery road at Niles will begin sometime this month was indicated as the result of a report made to the Township Register Tuesday by District Attorney Earl C. Warren.

District Attorney Warren told the Register that all those involved in the suit have filed answers in superior court with the exception of the California Nursery, who asked for additional time to confer with the board of supervisors in an effort to reach a settlement.

Although this was granted the nursery interests failed to reach an agreement with the supervisors and have signified their intention of filing answer to the suit today (Thursday), according to the district attorney.

When this has been done, the date for the suit to begin will be set at once, Warren assured the Register.

The nursery is represented by Brown Ledwich and Rosoon, of Oakland.

Salaries Remain At War-Time Level; Faculty Reduced

A slight reduction in the budget over that of last year was adopted at the meeting of Washington Union high school board of trustees Tuesday night in Centerville. The little saving effected was made by reducing the teaching force by two instructors. This will make it necessary for the reduced faculty to either do more work or slight the individual child.

Salaries of teachers were not reduced at Tuesday night's meeting, nor will they be lowered during the 1932-33 term, as contracts have already ben signed up at the old prosperity period figure.

The three new teachers hired come to the school under a new salary schedule which pays them lower than those replaced, according to their experience in teaching.

RODEO SUCCESS IS LARGELY DUE TO ADVERTISING

A convincing testimonial to the effectiveness of efficient advertising was afforded in the report made by the Livermore Rodeo committee last week when it gave credit for the crowd at this year's rodeo, the largest in the history of the event to newspaper advertising.

This was the first advertising campaign ever attempted by a rodeo in ths state, and according to those in charge, has definitely proven the value of advertising to a community celebration.

Poor Little Gardenias

BROTHER HOOPER of the Hayward Review is worried that we have offended Governor Rolph needlessly. It is all very well, thinks the editor of the Review, to insinuate that the governor is wasting valuable time posing with fems, but it is entirely unwarranted to say that the governor wears a rose in the lapel of his faultless attire. The exward politician of San Francisco, the Review assures us, does nothing of the kind; he sports a gardenia.

Concord Nine Falls Before Pleasanton

Seven to Two Is Score of Interesting Game

Rose's All Stars, of Concord, made a hard fight to continue their winning streak recently, but found the Pleasanton Y. M. I. team too much for them and went down to the tune of seven to two.

Alten's pitching was a treat to his home fans as it was Pleasonton's first game at home this season. Larry Dutra was back in the game after three weeks of illness. Although not himself yet, he caught a nice game.

Pleasanton started right off in the first inning to score on Concord. Faria singled. Govnor singled and was safe at first. Faria and Govnor pulled a double steal. Fontes hit to the pitcher, who turned and threw fast to third base to find Faria standing there. Fontes was safe at first. Peters singled, scoring Faria and Govnor with Fontes going to third. Silva struck out and Fontes was out at the plate. Dutra was thrown out by the second baseman to retire the side.

With this start the remainder of the game was comparatively easy for the Pleasanton nine. The lineup is as follows:

	AB	R	H
Faria, lf.	5	3	3
Govnor, 1.	4	2	2
Fontes, 1.	4	0	2
Peters, rf.	4	1	2
Silvia, cf.	4	0	1
Dutra, c.	3	0	1
Brenner, 2.	4	0	1
Alten, p.	4	0	1
Pous, 3.	3	1	1
Bottini, 3.	1	0	1

Three base hits—Peters, one. Two base hits—Faria, one; Govnor, one. Struck out—by Alten, eleven; by Concord pitcher, two.

In an agreement between the board and Hardy made last week, a compromise of $3,500 was settled upon, the sum to be paid by June 10.

SUPERVISED POLICE PATROL FOR NILES IS CONSIDERED BY CHAMBER

Committee Appointed To Investigate and Present Detailed Report

Prospects of Niles having a supervised police service to patrol the town during the night hours in the near future are bright as the result of the Niles Chamber of Commerce meeting Monday noon when a committee was appointed to investigate the feasibility of such a system and present a report at next week's meeting.

Mr. Gross of the Gross Patrol Service, appeared before the body and explained how his system operated. Representatives of his concern now patrol Decoto and Irvington and other towns in this section of the state.

It was the opinion of several chamber members that a patrol man directly responsible to some organization with legalized police powers would be an improvement over the present system where the patrolman is responsible only to himself. Gross pointed out that if the merchants were satisfied with services of the present night officer he could be taken into his firm and perform the same duties as at present, only that he would be under its supervision and would be responsible to its head. There was no dissatisfaction expressed by the chamber members with Patrolman Arthur Roderick's services.

The patrol system head also pointed out the cost of operating this service would not be more than the cost of the present maintainence of a patrolman.

The committee who will confer with Patrolman Roderick and make a report next week is composed of E. F. Glassbrook, H. L. Scott, and E. A. Ellsworth.

It was decided at Monday's meeting to carry out the plans for giving cash prizes to those winning honors in the Better Garden contest. Because of the time needed for other duties, W. B. Kirk was forced to resign as chairman of the committee in charge of the contest, but the other members will carry on the work. E. D. Bristow announced that a great deal of enthusiasm in the contest was expressed at a recent meeting of children entered.

W. B. Kirk was given authority by the chamber to hire a man to trim the trees along First street.

A silent tribute was paid to the memory of Dr. John Adams, who died Saturday, when all members of the chamber present arose for a minute and stood with bowed head.

Dr. E. C. Grau was appointed committee chairman to arrange for next week's meeting.

BANK OF AMERICA HEAD EXPLAINS CREDIT POLICY

In a message reflecting confidence in the "unmistakable signs of returning prosperity," Will F. Morrish, president of the Bank of America in a radio address last Saturday night on that institution's "Back to Good Times" program announced a plan of that bank expected to further stimulate industry and create more employment.

Morrish unfolded in detail the Bank of America's extension of credit policy in favor of loans for construction of small homes and predicted as a result of this, that there would be a marked impetus given the entire building industry of California and its allied trades. The address was made over station KGO of the National Broadcasting System.

"Bank of America is devoting its full energy to a program founded on faith in California and in an unfaltering conviction that there is a newer and sounder prosperity ahead" Morrish said in pesenting the home loan plan. "We are maaking loans to aid people in the construction and ownership of small homes and thus take advantage of the lowest building costs in twenty years. The making of these new new loans will make it possible for many people in moderate circumstances now to build the home of their dreams; to plant gardens and flowers and to watch their children play on their own green lawns."

These loans may be repaid in installments over a period of years. As these funds are loaned the entire building industry with its tens of thousands of workers will be helped and stimulated."

The work of Roy Ketashima on the mound for Centerville has been instrumental for many of the victories.

INSPIRING ADDRESS DELIVERED TO HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Eighty-Nine Seniors Receive Diplomas at Centerville

"The present depression is a direct challege for you to prove your character, courage, and ability in life," Paul Pitman, former KPO Big Brother, told members of the senior class at the forty-first annual commencement exercises held in the Washington Union high school gymnasium last Thursday night.

A large crowd of relatives and friends filled the gymnasium to witness the impressive rites and hear the chief speaker deliver an inspiring message to the largest graduating class in the history of Washington Union high school.

"Dip way deep in your hidden reserve of character and come up with enough reserve courage and faith and you will win success,' said Pitman in calling for the graduates to respond to the challege offered by their new life.

Drawing from experiences he had encountered while filling the role of Big Brother over the radio, the speaker illustrating how courage and strength of character is found in the ordinary crisises of life and expressed confidence that when the time came the members of the graduating class would not fail to answer the call for the struggle.

SWIMMING POOL CAMPAIGN TO CEASE

Coming to the conclusion that the present time is inopportune for the realization of the project, the campaign for the Washington township swimming pool will not be carried on any longer at this time, it was decided at a meeting of committees held Tuesday night of last week in the Washington Union high school.

As soon as the matter can be taken up by the Centerville Lions club, it is expected that all money turned in will be refunded and all subscriptons cancelled, according to A. J. Rathbone, member of the Lions Club committee on the pool. It is planned to send a circular letter to all those who contributed to the fund or pledged money toward its support. Although it has not yet been definitely settled, the Lions may decide to create a growing fund and allow all those who desire to keep their contributions in this fund until the sum necessary for construction of the pool is reached at some future time.

MORE ON BELOVED PHYSICIAN

sician, a type fast passing—the doctor-friend to whom could be taken the most trivial of pains as a child runs to its mother with scratched finger—the man whose deeds were the outgrowth of his being and who thought he had reached in his proofession a place attained by few, thought not of himself or his success, but of his patient.

The Reverend Clarence Oakley, of Palo Alto, speaking from a shorter experience of friendship than either Miss Shinn or Mr. Jones, reiterated all that they had said. Rev. Oakley said he had tried to paint with words a picture of Dr. Adams and what he had meant to him. But words were futile. They could not picture the soul of the man whose spirit had gone to its God but still lived on in his home, in his loved ones, in his friends.

The large collection of beautiful floral offerings and the large number of people who paid their respects to members of the deceased family, illustrated the high esteem in which Dr. Adams was held.

The body was cremated at an Oakland crematorium.

School Budget Discussed At Board Meeting Tuesday Night

Three new teachers were appointed to the faculty of the Washingtton Union high school for the 1932-33 school session at the meeting of the high school board of trustees held Tuesday night.

Salvatore Belleci, formerly of Stockton high school, was appointed as music director; Miss Mary Van Winkle, formerly of Galt high school, as teacher of social science and commercial subjects; and Paul Pitman as instructor in English.

All three teachers come highly recommended. Belleci taught for two years and a half in the Stockton high school and has had other experience in Galt, Tulare and Ripon high schools. He is a graduate of the University of California with an A B degree. He is married and has one child.

Miss Van Winkle is a graduate of Mills college and has received a Master of Arts degree from the University of California. She has had four years of teaching experience.

Pitman is well-known to many radio listeners in Caalifornia, having been engaged in educational work over the radio for the past six years. He is a graduate of Whittier College and has been taking graduate work at the University of California.

Discussion of the school budget for the coming year was the other chief business at the board meeting. David E. Martin was present and spoke on the budget.

The position left vacant by the resignation of J. B. Hill, mathematics instructor who will be principal of the high school at Miranda next year, will be absorbed by members of the faculty, no new teachers being appointed.

War Mothers Given Party in Pleasanton

A large crowd was present at the social gathering. The evening was devoted to the playing of a number of games. Late in the evening refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. M. Perry, the only gold star mother in the Pleasanton Auxiliary, was presented with a set of china.

The war mothers who were entertained were Mrs. C. A. Bruce, Mrs. T. Ziegenfuss, Mrs. George Trimingham, all of Pleasanton; Mrs. Nellie Westling, of Sunol.

Jockey Caps Will Be Emblem of Big Pleasanton Event

Meeting of General Committee Thrashes Out Details

Red, white and blue jockey caps have been chosen as the official emblem of Pleasanton's three day Fourth of July celebration.

It is the hope of the general committee that every man woman and child in Pleasanton will be wearing one of these caps inside of a week. In this small way can the people of Pleasanton show in advance that they are one hundred per cent in favor of the Fourth of July event.

Advertising ribbons, to be pinned on the caps, will soon be on sale by the advertising committee. The proceeds from the sale of these ribbons will go toward helping to defray the cost of advertising the affair. Due to the limited amount of money at the disposal of the advertising committee, the committee is looking forward to a good sale of these ribbons.

A general thrashing out of details resulted at the meeting of the general committee and all sub committees last week.

Two outstanding changes in the program occured. It was decided to have a horse show on the afternoon of Saturday, July 2. The kiddies' parade was moved up to Saturday evening at seven-thirty instead of Monday morning, as originally planned.

The gratifying feature of the evening's meeting was the favorable reports on the way the plans are taking shape.

The race track owners have guaranteed the use of the track for the events under a more than satisfying arrangement.

Bleachers have been secured from the Livermore Rodeo Association merely for the price of hauling them to Pleasanton and back again.

It has been definitely learned that approximately 125 horses from outside of Pleasanton are going to be on hand to take part in the races and show horse events.

The advertising committee had a splendid report. Banners have already been placed in several of the smaller towns and on the main highways surrounding Pleasanton. Within a week, a gaily decorated auto with a loud speaker system will be operating nightly in the towns and cities of the bay region.

The dance committee reported that they have arranged a bargain price per couple for the street dances Saturday and Sunday nights.

Newspaper men from the entire bay region will be the guests of the advertising committee at a de luxe barbecue in Pleasanton Sunday night.

Although the affair is being sponsored by the Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce, the general committee is looking forward to the support of the whole community to make the celebration a success. And there seems to be no doubt but what they will get that support in the way that only Pleasanton can give it.

Mother of 7—Still Young

THE woman who gives her organs the right stimulant need not worry about growing old.

Her system doesn't stagnate; her face doesn't age. She has the health and "pep" that come from a lively liver and strong, active bowels.

When you're sluggish and the system needs help, don't take a lot of "patent medicines." There's a famous doctor's prescription for just such cases, and every druggist keeps this standard preparation. It is made from fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. Just ask for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a little every day or so, until every organ in your body feels the big improvement.

The next time you have a bilious headache, or feel all bound-up, take this delicious syrup instead of the usual cathartic. You'll be rid of all that poisonous waste, and you haven't weakened the bowels. You'll have a better appetite, and feel better in every way. The constant use of cathartics is often the cause of a sallow complexion and lines in the face. And so unnecessary!

Would you like to break yourself of the cathartic habit? At the same time building health and vigor that protects you from frequent sick spells, headaches, and colds? Get a big bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin today. Use often enough to avoid those attacks of constipation. When you feel weak and run-down or a coated tongue or bad breath warns you the bowels need to be stimulated. Give it to children instead of strong laxatives that sap their strength. It isn't expensive.

MORE ON CASEY'S TRIAL

ents of Dotty, will keep the audience in a continuous uproar with their mirth provoking antics.

During the second act the hilarious situations reach still greater heights when Dotty is about to be properly married to Casey. The ceremony is performed by Reverend Potts, with Ed Rose, of Irvington, admirably fitting the role of a dignified and conscientious minister, while Mr. and Mrs. Perkins comfortingly stand by their daughter to guide her into the sea of matrimony. The most mirth provoking scene of all results when the best man, played by Harvey Braun, and the maid of honor, taken by Wilda Mete, interrupted the marriage services so long that Reverend Potts hears the twelve o'clock whistle blow before it is completed and faithfully follows out the obligations of being a union man.

Additional fun and merriment in the show is created by the jurors, witnesses, the Humin' bird Orchestra, and the flower girls, whose names are all found on the handbills that have been distibuted about the township.

Pulchritude and dancing ability galore are found in the chorus, made up of popular young ladies of the community, who will perform during the show in attractive costumes. A glee club, made up of community singers, will render the opening number of the show.

From the interest being shown throughout the township and the advance ticket sales a record crowd is expected for both evenings of the performances.
